

MARCH

LOVE YOUR WATER

As winter begins to slowly loosen its grip, and you quickly develop the spring cleaning itch, keep water quality in mind: clean green! Household chemicals are potential sources of water pollution, making their way into local streams and rivers and eventually Lake Erie! By using natural cleaning products (easy to DIY) you can save money and protect yourself and your watershed from exposure to harsh chemicals. Happy Spring!